Verse - choice of eleven

	Selected Poems ISBN: 9780140424317 Penguin 2001	Arranged in chronological order, this diverse selection of his poetry shows the development of Kipling's talent, his deepening maturity and the growing sombreness of his poetic vision. Ranging from early celebrations of British expansion overseas, including 'Mandalay' and 'Gunga Din', to the dignified and inspirational 'If -' and the later, deeply moving 'Epitaphs of the War' - inspired by the death of Kipling's only son - it clearly illustrates the scope and originality of his work.

Prose - choice of eleven

	War Stories and Poems ISBN: 9780199555505 Oxford University Press 2009	A selection of Kipling's poems and stories on the theme of war, covering the imperial wars, the Boer War and the Great War. Edited with a useful and enlightening introduction by Andrew Rutherford
	Stories and Poems ISBN: 9780198723431 Oxford University Press 2015	This selection of stories and poems covers the full range of Kipling's career from the youthful volumes that brought him fame as the chronicler of British India, to the bittersweet fruits of age and bereavement in the aftermath of the First World War. It includes stories such as 'The Man who would be King', 'Mrs Bathurst', and 'Mary Postgate', and poems from Barrack-Room Ballads and other collections. Edited with an informative introduction by Daniel Karlin
	Kipling and War ISBN: 9781784533335 I.B. Tauris 2015	Through his writing on the harsh realities of life as a private and accounts of feats of courage and comradeship during the frontier wars in India, 19th century British campaigns in Sudan, the Boer Wars and the First World War, he became the poet of the common soldier. Although he wrote propaganda for the government in the Boer and First World Wars, Kipling was also acerbic in his criticism of military incompetence, deeply compassionate towards the victims of war and despairing of the senseless bloodshed that he witnessed. Edited with a useful introduction by Andrew Lycett
	Kipling and the Sea Voyages and Discoveries from North Atlantic to South Pacific ISBN: 9781780762739 I.B. Tauris 2014	Kipling may be best known as a commentator on the British Empire, but he was also a vivid observer and chronicler of the sea - and of ships and all who sailed in them. For him the sea was the glue which bound the British Empire together. To reach distant lands, you needed to sail. So Kipling wrote copiously about his own voyages - to India, across the Pacific and Atlantic, down to South Africa and Australia - and about the voyages of others. Edited and introduced by Andrew Lycett
	Kipling Abroad Traffics and Discoveries from Burma to Brazil ISBN: 9781848850729 I.B. Tauris 2010	This is a collection of some of the very best of Rudyard Kipling, revealing a great deal not only about the countries through which he travelled but about the man himself. Edited and introduced by Andrew Lycett
	Collected Stories - Everyman's Library ISBN: 9781857151992 Everyman 1994	This selection covers the full range of Kipling's extraordinary short stories throughout his career. Ranging in subject matter from the Indian to the Occult, from children to animals, from domestic comedy to public tragedy, each is masterly in its way. Above all, they convey a wonderful sense of life and energy and reveal Kipling as a far greater and more diverse writer than most people suspect.

	The Best Short Stories - Wordsworth Classics ISBN: 9781853261794 Wordsworth 1997	The diverse tales selected for this volume display the astonishing virtuosity of Rudyard Kipling's early writings. With a new Introduction by Cedric Watts, Research Professor of English, University of Sussex.
	The Man who would be King ISBN: 9780141442358 Penguin Classics 2011	This new selection brings together the best of his short writings, following the development of his work over fifty years. Including 'The Man Who Would Be King', 'The Village that Voted the Earth Was Flat', 'Baa Baa, Black Sheep', 'Mary Postgate' 'The Gardener', here are stories of criminals, ghosts, femmes fatales, madness and murder.
